

Woodstock Community Trust Wins Major Award from the State of Vermont, Vermont Community Development Program at the Jasper Hill Farm, Greensboro, VT on July 19th. 2007

At an outdoor meeting in Greensboro, Vermont, the governor of the State of Vermont, James Douglas presented a Grant to the Woodstock Community Trust in the amount of $ 750,000. The Governor was acting on behalf of the Vermont Community Development Program (VCDP) in their current round of funding.

This is an Implementation Grant which is to help build a portion of the Grange Hill Family Development providing affordable housing to low-to-moderate-income individuals and families.

Shown in the picture are: Left to Right:
Hon. James Douglas, Governor of the State of Vermont
Mrs. Patsy Highberg, Pres. Woodstock Community Trust

Shown in the picture are: Left to Right:
Hon. James Douglas, Governor of the State of Vermont
Ms Nancy Owens, VP Housing Vermont, Burlington.

Ms Owens is the primary force gathering resources and helping people work together.